

Nordic Stroke Society

SPONSOR & EXHIBITION INVITATION

WELCOME

Dear Potential Sponsor

It is our pleasure to invite you to support the 24th Nordic Stroke Society Congress, which will be held in Reykjavík, Iceland, from 15 to 17 September 2027, at the Hilton Hotel.

The Nordic Stroke Society Congress is a well-established international scientific meeting that brings together clinicians, researchers, and allied health professionals dedicated to advancing stroke prevention, acute care, rehabilitation, and research. The congress is recognized for its high scientific standards, interdisciplinary scope, and strong professional engagement across the Nordic and Baltic countries, with growing international participation.

The scientific program will include keynote lectures, symposia, workshops, oral and poster presentations covering the full continuum of stroke care, including prevention, acute treatment, rehabilitation, long-term outcomes, and health systems organization. The faculty will include leading experts from the Nordic-Baltic region and invited international speakers.

Based on previous Nordic Stroke Society congresses, we anticipate participation from several hundred delegates representing neurology, stroke medicine, nursing, rehabilitation, allied health professions, research, and policy. The congress will provide an important platform for knowledge exchange, collaboration, and innovation within stroke care.

The program structure is designed to encourage interaction and engagement. Scientific sessions will be complemented by scheduled breaks and networking opportunities, allowing time for meaningful dialogue between participants and industry partners. A limited number of industry-sponsored symposia, workshops, and exhibition opportunities will be available, all conducted in accordance with ethical guidelines and professional standards.

The congress venue, located in central Reykjavík, offers modern conference facilities in a highly accessible and attractive setting. Reykjavík provides a safe, vibrant, and welcoming environment, combining a strong scientific culture with proximity to Iceland's unique natural surroundings. Further details regarding sponsorship opportunities and exhibition options are available here the congress website (www.NSSC2027.is). We warmly welcome your interest in supporting the Nordic Stroke Society Congress 2027 and look forward to welcoming you to Reykjavik.

On behalf of the Nordic Stroke Society and the Local Organizing Committee,
